April 2015 SOS Meeting Minutes

Laurie Stoner called the meeting to order at 7:15 PM.

Jo Davis introduced new members and guests.

Old Business:

No questions on the Treasurer's Report.

New Business:

Congratulations to everyone who participated in the Englewood show. We took second place for our display but the highlights were the 2 trophies won by Susan Gerhardt and Denny Pavlock, the AOS cultural award won by John Rich and the HCC won by Cathy Lewis plus lots of ribbons!

Since that was our final show of the year, we are selling the ferns. Take a look. They're a good value.

Even the food table is bare, it will sure make it easier to get the meeting rolling and over sooner. Thanks for everyone's support.

Stig Dalstrom and Darryl Saffer showed the new WOM film. A Q & A followed.

- Jim and Roy went through the Display table
- Mecky, Carolyn, and Al ran the raffle.
- Meeting adjourned at 9:30 pm.

ORCHIDS WE SHOULD ALL GROW DENDROBIUM ANOSMUM

Orchid growers have long been fascinated by the genus Dendrobium. Consisting of over 900 species, it is one of the largest of the orchid families. Dendrobiums come in all sizes, shapes, blooming seasons and growth habits. Some do not tolerate night temperatures below the mid 50's. Others thrive to 18,000 feet altitude in the Himalayas. Others have adapted to monsoon/desert cycles. There is one for every growers growing habits.

Some of my personal favorites are the deciduous types that drop their foliage in fall and go dormant. After a winter of ignoring them, you are suddenly surprised with a profusion of bright colors on bare canes. Such are the habit of many soft cane Dendrobiums.

Dendrobium anosmum is one such soft cane den. Its growing habit spans from Vietnam and Sri Lanka to New Guinea and other Pacific islands. It follows the typical wet/dry seasonal pattern. When it drops its leaves at the end of the rainy season, withhold all water until after it has bloomed, typically in spring in the southern United States.

After a dormant season of several months, buds will appear from the old leaf nodes, two to four to a node. Colors will range from white to dark pink, almost purple. Flowers can range from 2-4" across and feature a well defined lip, long narrow sepals and full petals. Anosmum, which means unscented, is unusually named because this species has a lovely berrylike scent.

Flowers typically last for three to four weeks. You can begin watering again when the flowers drop.

The plants are sympodial, with long thin canes. When mature and well grown, canes can reach 6' or more in length. They are pendulous and as a result, are not well suited to a pot. Grow anosmum and its related species on a raft or slab with a solid anchor and lots of room to grow downward.

Water and fertilize heavily when in active growth and DO NOT water at all once the leaves have begun to drop. If you are tempted to water, hold your right hand out, palm down, and slap it with your left hand! Watering when dormant will result in keikis instead of flowers the following spring. Grow the plant warm when in active growth with dappled light. The dormant season allows for cooler temperatures. I grow mine down to 40 degrees and in almost direct sun for most of the day.

The plant hybridizes easily with over 50 known and registered progeny. Like many soft cane hybrids, the offspring are often known only as "Singapore Orchids".

John Odom

Hello Everyone,

We, here at Odom's Orchids, Inc., would like to welcome you to join us for our very special 5th Annual Cattleya Symposium! The check-in date for the hotels is Thursday August 6th, starting at 3pm. The symposium will be held on Friday August 7th and Saturday August 8th at the Indian River Research and Education Center in Fort Pierce, Florida from 8 am – 5pm.

Our event will include an amazing lineup of eight speakers (although we will have nine total talks) who will take us through the history of this very royal family of orchids. This year's line-up will include:

Keith Davis (Keith Davis Orchids, North Carolina): • Growing cattleyas

Jeff Bradley (Texas):• Pre-World War II hybrid cattleyas

Dr. Aaron Palmateer, Ph. D (IFAS, Florida): • Orchid Diseases and Pathology

Armando Mantellini (Florida): • C. mossiae

Gene Crocker (Carter & Holmes, South Carolina): • “Cattleyas of the Andes”

Ed Skvarch (IFAS, Florida): • Greenhouse management and fertilizer

Alek Zaslowski (AWZ Orquídeas, Brazil) :• C. eldorado • C. guttata

Makoto Hanajima (Thai Hanajima's Orchids/Blumen Insel's Orchids, Japan) • Older cattleya hybrids

The cost of the symposium is $150.00 per person. Due to the limited seating capacity, we only have enough openings for only 140 people so make sure you don't miss the deadline to sign-up. We need everyone registered by August 1st in order to have everything prepared in a timely fashion for each attendee. We also have made arrangements for special pricing at certain hotels. Below is the hotel information and IFAS building location.

The Holiday Inn Express & Suites will be our host this year's symposium. They have agreed to give us a rate of $69 for a single king bed room, $75 double queen rooms, and suites available on request. They have guaranteed to hold 40 rooms for us under Odom's Orchids until July 30th (a week before the check-in date, August 6th). So the quicker you have signed up, the more likely you will be guaranteed a spot in the host hotel, as well as our participating hotels. The (guaranteed) cut-off date for the Holiday Inn is July 30th, Fairfield Inn and The Hampton Inn are both on July 23rd. We ask that you please sign-up with us and book your hotel using the codes provided (below) as quickly as possible.

The IFAS center has been kind enough let us host our symposiums with them every year. As some of our previous attendees know, some things we cannot control such as the temperature. It has been known to be on the colder side in the building so please bring a sweater or jacket just in case.

As a reminder for everyone and for all of our new people, we will be providing lunch for everyone on Friday and Saturday. There will be an auction Friday night and we would like everyone to meet at the Holiday Inn Thursday evening so that we can start passing out name tags as well as give a chance for everyone to meet the other attendees. (See attached schedule)

Attached is the schedule of events, hotel info, and our flyer. It will include the times of the speakers, lunch time and other events. A final schedule will be provided in everyone's books which will be received in person at the Holiday Inn Thursday evening.

Holiday Inn Address: 7151 Okeechobee Rd, Fort Pierce, FL 34945

IFAS Address: 2199 S Rock Rd, Fort Pierce

Sarasota Orchid Society, Inc.

SOS meets on the first Monday of each month at Selby Gardens. The SOS, an affiliate of the American Orchid Society, is a non-profit association with the aims of promoting the development, improvement and preservation of orchids through the dissemination of information concerning the culture, hybridization or development of orchids, and generally to extend the knowledge of orchids.

Our membership dues, at $20. for individuals and $25. for families, are a great value. These dues help us acquire quality speakers for our monthly meetings and pay for special events such as picnics and repotting demonstrations. Our fund raisers, Orchid Auction, Orchid Show and Raffles raise additional funds to educate the general public about orchids and their conservation, provide scholarships to local students who will study horticulture, and support orchid research programs.

“Orchid View” our Orchid Society newsletter, is published monthly by the Sarasota Orchid Society. It is included via e-mail at no charge for members.

Deadline for articles, photos and information for the newsletter is the 15th of the previous month.

Contributors to “Orchid View” give reprint rights to their work to newsletters and other affiliates of the American Orchid Society.
